

ABFE

A Philanthropic Partnership for Black Communities

NETWORKING AND CONVENING

ABFE uses its position and networks in the philanthropic sector to share information for the express purpose of influencing policies and practices in the field that may hinder the success of Black professionals or communities. The following programs represent our current networking and convening areas:

BLACK PHILANTHROPIC NETWORK (BPN)

Program Overview

The Black Philanthropic Network is a group of eleven regional associations of Blacks in philanthropy with a shared focus of supporting philanthropy in Black communities. ABFE maintains the network through coordinated activities, sharing data and information, and supporting regular communications and/or convening among the regional groups.

Program Objectives

To serve as a convener, support system and resource for the Black Philanthropic Network.

Program Audience

Regional groups with a shared focus of supporting philanthropy in Black communities.

Key Activities

Networking
Partnering Strategies, Activities, Convening and Communications
Resources

Program Point-of-Contact

Edward M. Jones, Director of Programs
ejones@abfe.org